

ENDNOTES

¹Williamson County Sun, June 4, 1959, p. 1; Berna S. Cooke's notes on the Belford Lumber Company and her father, A. W. Sillure, Georgetown Heritage Society files, July 1, 1971. The two sources contain a discrepancy in the spelling of Sillure's middle name. The newspaper obituary shows it as "Wiley," while Mrs. Cooke's notes show it to be "Wylie."

²Cooke papers.

³Williamson County Sun, June 4, 1959.

⁴Multiple-resource nomination to the National Register of Historic Places. Prepared in 1984 by Hardy Heck Moore for the Georgetown Heritage Society. Copy on file at GHS office, Georgetown.

⁵Belford Lumber Company ledger books, on file at GHS office, Georgetown; Cooke papers.

⁶Williamson County Sun, June 4, 1959, p. 1; Williamson County Sun, May 8, 1958, p. 6.

⁷Deed Records, County Clerk's Office, Williamson County Courthouse, Georgetown, Texas.

BIBLIOGRAPHY

- Belford Lumber Company ledgers. On file at Georgetown Heritage Society office, Georgetown.
- Cooke, Berna Sillure. Notes on Belford Lumber Company and her father, A. W. Sillure, July 1, 1971. On file at GHS office, Georgetown. Information was supplemented with interview by Dan K. Utley, February 1990.
- Deed Records, County Clerk's Office, Williamson County Courthouse, Georgetown, Texas.
- Multiple-resource nomination for National Register of Historic Places. Prepared for the Georgetown Heritage Society in 1984 by Hardy Heck Moore, Austin. Copy on file at GHS office, Georgetown.
- Williamson County Sun, May 8, 1958, p. 6.
- Williamson County Sun, June 4, 1959, p. 1.